

Equal rights, equal pay. Equal treatment!

The European Federation of Building and Woodworkers is strongly committed to achieving equal rights, equal pay and equal treatment, for all workers. The EU must guarantee that all workers' fundamental rights and freedoms are respected, regardless of their country of origin. These values are essential for all workers and must be excluded from competition.

European Federation of Building
and Woodworkers

